

Southern European Seas: Assessing and Modelling Ecosystem changes

SESAME STAKEHOLDER FORUM
Mediterranean & Black Sea: Science & Socio-Economic Management

Hellenic Centre for Marine Research, 46.7 km Athens-Sounion Avenue, Mauro Lithari, Anavyssos, Greece

Friday 2 October 2009

AGENDA

Time	Speaker	Title
10:00	Dr. E. Papatahanssiou Research Director SESAME Project Coordinator	Aims and prospects of the SESAME project in Greece, the Mediterranean and the Black Sea
10:15	Dr. I. Siokou-Frangou Research Director	The evolution of marine ecosystems in Greece
10:30	Dr. D. Raitos Associate Researcher	The evolution and results of the increased temperatures in the Greek seas
10:45	Dr. A. Zenetou Research Director	Exotic species in Greece: Evolution and strategies
11:00	Dr. G. Triantafyllou Principal Reseracher	A numerical model as a management tool for anchovy in the North Aegean Sea
11:15	Prof. M. Skourtos University of the Aegean	Goods and services of marine ecosystems: The case of the SESAME project
11:30	Discussion/Talks about the contribution of policy-makers in the protection of the marine environment and their connection with research projects as well as the important factors for success in the protection of the marine environment in Greece (current knowledge and policy gaps-scientific and political action plans).
13:00	Lunch	